

Knights of Columbus: Father O'Neill Council

2020 Coats for Kids Campaign

Many economically poor families, at home and abroad are not prepared for winter. They badly need coats to keep their children warm, healthy, and alive. We are hopeful that through Holy Spirit within each of you, you will choose to participate in the COATS FOR KIDS, COATS FOR CHRISTMAS CAMPAIGN in whatever way you can afford.

This year we would like to not only keep the children in Baltimore warm, but also support Christian children in Pakistan. Thanks to our Brother Jacob Anjum who emigrated with his family from Pakistan, we can target funds directly to this second cause.

Winter in Northern Pakistan is a most difficult time due the harsh, deadly winter storms bringing frigid cold, and heavy snowfall during a period from late December thru February. Families here are the poorest of the poor, and local governments do not have the needed resources.

Only 2% of the population in this region is Christian and families are often led by widows and therefore are especially at high risk due to their poverty. Sadly, children often perish due to a lack of basic food, shelter and warm clothing. We wish to assist our Christian brothers and sisters who desperately need our help. Please do what you can. May the Holy Spirit guide you always.

– Jacob Anjum

Coats are $40 each and for $80 you fund a coat for a child in each location.

It is our goal to keep 40 kids warm in Baltimore and in Pakistan. This campaign is truly lifesaving, but it is only possible through the generosity, sacrifice, and selflessness of others—men and women of Christ, such as yourself.
